

Clean Maritime Assembly 2026

Join us for 2 insightful days bringing together the people shaping the future of clean maritime research and innovation - across academia, industry & policy

 24-25 June 2026
09:00 -17:00

 Durham University
Teaching & Learning Centre
South Road, Durham, DH1 3LS

Conference Highlights

- ✓ High-profile keynote addresses
- ✓ 3 parallel content streams tailored to different expertise
- ✓ Interactive Q&A sessions & poster competition
- ✓ Poster competition
- ✓ Drinks reception & networking opportunities
- ✓ Travel bursaries for Early Career Researchers

3 Parallel Programmes

- Programme 1 Highlights and Headline Programme
Showcasing sector-spanning activity
- Programme 2 Academic Insights Programme
Cutting-edge research, innovation and emerging evidence
- Programme 3 Beyond the Horizon Programme
Interactive sessions accelerating clean maritime to practice

Themes & Focus Areas

Future Fuels & Safety | Risk & Asset Management | Skills & Workforce Development | Technology & Innovation | AI, Digitalisation & Data | Ports & Operations | Regulation & Policy | Vessel Design & Efficiency | Power & Propulsion Systems

Keynote Speakers

Day 1

Jo North
Technology & Transformation Director
Port of Tyne
(CEO, Harwich Haven Authority from June 2026)

Patricia Thornley
Chief Scientific Advisor
Department for Transport

Day 2

Claudene Sharp-Patel
Global Technical Director
Lloyds Register
(President-Elect IMarEST - 2027)

Catriona Savage
Interim Capability Director
BMT
(President of RINA)

Sign-up to express your interest in attending
Registration will open in early May

Funded by
UK Government

Engineering and
Physical Sciences
Research Council